

Good Afternoon!

I hope you are all having a good week. Next Thursday, October 20th, we are hosting our 2011 third quarter shareholder conference call. The conference call will last approximately 40 minutes.

The discussion is focused on three main topics:

1. European Credit Crisis
2. U.S. Monetary Policy
3. Current MMF Investment Strategy

There will be a Q&A session at the end. Please send me your questions in advance if possible. Registration is not required however; you can mark this meeting on your Outlook Calendar by clicking the link below. When you dial in the Operator will request your name and the firm you represent.

This quarter we will be conducting a survey of the call. The link to the survey will be sent to you next week. Please complete the survey in order for us to improve the content of our quarterly shareholder calls.
