

2023 Citi Political Engagement Report

Introduction

As a global company, Citi is subject to extensive laws, rules, and regulations that impact revenues and operating expenses. Because of the potential impact public policies can have on our business, employees, and customers, Citi engages with policymakers to advance and protect the company's interests globally. Citi also believes that engaging on public policy issues is an important part of being a responsible corporate citizen. Citi's full statement on political activities is available online at Citigroup.com.

The Government Affairs team works closely with Citi's core businesses and functions to advocate the company's interests through direct contact with government officials or indirectly through trade and business associations. In the U.S., Citi's Political Action Committees also support candidates that understand the important issues affecting the company's businesses.

This Report contains information regarding Citi's political contributions, advocacy activities, and principal trade and business association memberships for the calendar year 2023.

Advocacy/Lobbying

United States Lobbying

In 2023, Citi reported federal advocacy (lobbying) expenditures of $5 million. The company lobbied on matters regarding financial services and banking, bank capital rules, credit card pricing, cyber security, tax policy, trade policy, geopolitical issues, and sanctions/investment restrictions. More than 8,300 Cards employees generated letters to Members of Congress in opposition to the Credit Card Competition Act (CCCA).

In the states, Citi advocated on matters regarding financial services and banking, privacy proposals, tax policy, fair access proposals impacting Citi's ability to do business with state and local governments, and HR/employment issues. Our state lobbying includes grassroots disclosures in Idaho and Missouri as required by law.

International Lobbying

Outside the U.S., Citi's advocacy efforts vary by country and span across multiple financial services industry matters, including, but not limited to banking, securities, and financial services related issues, cross border data issues, digital assets, bank taxes, sanctions, trade policies.

Compliance

Citi complies with all international, national, state, and local laws concerning lobbying registration and reporting. At the U.S. federal level, quarterly lobbying disclosures are filed with the U.S. Congress disclosing Citi's federal lobbying expenditures and the issues lobbied. To review our U.S. quarterly filings, visit the Office of the Clerk of House of Representatives or the Secretary of the Senate and search for "Citigroup Washington, Inc." in the Registrant Name field. State and local, and international disclosure websites are listed on Citigroup.com.

2023 U.S. Political Contributions

One of the most important political engagement tools we have continued to be Citi's employee-funded political action committee — Citi PAC. Through Citi PAC, we are better positioned to advocate on issues that impact our business, our colleagues, and the communities we serve across the country.

Financial support for Citi PAC comes solely through voluntary contributions from eligible employees who share the common interest of supporting Citi's efforts in the political process.

We evaluate Citi PAC support to candidates based on the following criteria:

- Support of business issues important to Citi;
- Position on a committee with jurisdiction over policy issues important to Citi, or elected leadership position;
- Representation of a state or district where Citi has a significant employee presence;
- Character and integrity; and
- Demonstrated commitment to bipartisanship, governing and protecting democratic institutions.

A third party provides on-going monitoring of social media and news activities of the individuals we have identified for contributions during the calendar year.

Description of Contribution Limits

Citi PAC-Federal Contribution Limits

Citi PAC-Federal makes contributions to federal candidates, national party committees and Federal Leadership PACs. Federal Leadership PACs are permitted to accept donations from individuals and other PACs up to $5,000 per calendar year. Leadership PACs are established by a federal officeholder but are used to support other candidates for federal office. Citi PAC-Federal does not make contributions to state or local candidates, state or local committees, or state or local incumbents running for federal office.

The limits for the Citi PAC-Federal are listed below:

- $5,000 per election to a federal candidate's campaign committee. That means $5,000 may be given for the candidate's primary and $5,000 for the general election, for a total of $10,000 per election cycle.

- $15,000 per calendar year to a national party committee: Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee (DCCC), Democratic National Committee (DNC), Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee (DSCC), National Republican Congressional Committee (NRCC), National Republican Senatorial Committee (NRSC), Republican National Committee (RNC).
- $5,000 per year to an incumbent's leadership PAC.

Citi PAC-State Contribution Limits

Contribution limits within the states and municipalities can vary greatly, from $100 per election to $50,000 per election. Citi PAC-State makes contributions, where permitted by law, to state and local officials, state political party committees, state leadership PACs, and national state legislative organizations.
