April 24, 2024

I'm Lucy Baldwin, Global Head of Citi Research, and I'm delighted to welcome you to the Research @ Citi podcast. Twice a month, my fellow hosts and I will be joined by our guest experts to offer a lens into the financial markets. We'll unpack the most relevant and timely topics, delving into why they matter and how they impact investors and consumers. Our inaugural season features episodes on the future of China, the delicate geopolitical landscape, the promise of GLP-1 drugs for weight loss, and other key themes. I hope you'll join us for some compelling conversations. Listen on Spotify, Apple, or wherever you get your podcasts.
